

There is a growing awareness of the power of storytelling as a means for community development, advocacy and transformation. This workshop will explore a number of resources developed by the Irish Peace Centres and the Corrymeela Community in Northern Ireland - resources looking at storytelling, conflict, revenge, safety and forgiveness. A number of resources will be presented during the day, which practitioners in Melbourne will be very welcome to take (steal) and adapt to local neighbourhood and community needs.

March 27, 2012
9.30 - 4.00pm

at Solace, 751 Heidelberg Rd, Alphington

Cost: $45 for the day, includes morning and afternoon tea
